ATARRE

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanes the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

oughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. P. H. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., writes: "Having been a terrible sufferer from Catarrh, and being now sound and well, the question often put to me is, "What cured you?" In answer I feel it my duty to state that Swift's Specific is the medicine. I am such a true believer in the efficacy of Swift's Specific that I can honestly and conscientiously recommended it to many, and am happy to say that those whom I have induced to use it can bear meout in the statement that it will cure any case of Catarrh if taken according to directious."

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send our book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians about your case. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

CAN FOOD DO IT?

Importance of the Food Cure.

To discover a food that will cure a nervous wreck is indeed a Godsend. Mrs. Stella Penal, 1227 West Thirty-first Street, Los Angeles, Cal., hud to very remarkable experience. Size says: "About twelve experience. Site says: "About twelve years ago, I was run over by a carriage and my spine was injured. My left arm was partfally paralyzed, walking was difficult and I had continual pains and ache sin my whole body.

"To induce a movement of the bowels,
I invariably had to resort to medianical means. I would sit up in bed for hours, suffering severe colicky pains, caused by the non-digestion of the starch of the food. My heart was so weak that at times no pulse could be felt, and it seemed at times as if I must die. I fainted very often, sometimes lying in a half fainting condition for hours, unable to move or speak, though conscious. Shortly after Xmas Providence directed me to buy a box of Graps-Nuts food, which I have since eaten twice a day.

"The improvement in health has been wonderful; now I can eat and digest food, my bowels act naturally and regularly circulation is better, catarrh moderated, and I have gained much in weight and am better every way. I can read and think, while before, my eyes and brain felt too weak to do either. I can walk a long ways and have not used my air cuspion for some time and I have no fur-them need of it."

them need of it.

This is a direct demonstration of the fact that Grape-Nuts food surely does rebuild the soft, gray matter in the bran and nerve centers, and any depleted person can prove this by use. One cannot get well of nervous troubles without the right sort of food to rebuild this curious substance which is found in the brain, and this must be rebuilt from the food Grape-Nuts food is made especially for the purpose,
